XII. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

Gratitude is thankfulness towards the one who helps you in times of need. There is much greatness of mind in acknowledging a good turn as in doing it.

Man is a social animal and cannot live all by himself. Interaction amongst men is necessary. We need the help of others and, in turn, must help them. Whenever we receive any help from any person, we should be grateful to him. If we do not express our gratitude, people may not wish to help us a second time. A kindly generous deed deserves a "Thank you" accompanied by a gracious smile. If you have an opportunity to return that kind deed, don't forget to do so ungrudgingly. It costs so little to be grateful.

We should never forget to say the simple word "Thank you". Whatever be the help, we should be thankful to our parents or teachers and our friends for doing so much for us. Think of life without your parents' care and help ! Think of the guidance your teachers give you ! It is very important to be grateful to them.
